

Autumn leaves

Johnny Mercer

A $B\flat m7$ $E\flat 7$ $A\flat maj7$ $D\flat maj7$

The fal-ling leaves, drift by the win-dow. The aut-umn

6 $Gm7\flat 5$ $C7\flat 9$ Fm

leaves of red and gold. I see your 10 $B\flat m7$ $E\flat 7$ $A\flat maj7$ $D\flat maj7$

lips, the sum-mer kis-ses, the sun-burned

14 $Gm7\flat 5$ $C7\flat 9$ Fm

hands I used to hold. Since you

18 B $Gm7\flat 5$ $C7\flat 9$ Fm went a-way, the days grow long. And soon I'll 22 $B\flat m7$ $E\flat 7$ $A\flat maj7$

hear old win-ter's song But I

26 $Gm7\flat 5$ $C7\flat 9$ $Fm7$ $E7$ $E\flat m7$ $D7$

miss you most of all, my dar-ling. When

30 $D\flat maj7$ $C7\flat 9$ Fm

au-tumn-leaves syart to fall. (The fall-ing)